THIRD READING

HB 6088

(Accavitti)

The bill would prohibit a person from providing home inspection services of residential property without a license; establish application, examination, and licensing fees for a home inspector license; create the Occupational Fund to fund the operation of the Bureau of Commercial Services; establish civil and criminal penalties for violations; and establish application, license, and examination fees. The bill would apply to inspections of residences that are primarily for family living quarters and designed for occupancy of not more than four families in separate dwelling units. "Residence" as defined in the bill would not include newly constructed buildings or buildings that had not been previously occupied as a dwelling unit. A "home inspector" would mean a person engaged in, or offering to engage in, the business of providing home inspection services. It would exclude persons doing inspections for compliance with local, state, or federal health and safety laws and regulations and construction or building laws, codes, or regulations. Licensing requirements would also not apply to persons licensed, registered, or certified under the building, mechanical, and trade codes when doing inspections within the scope of their regulated professions. The bill would take effect 12 months after enactment.

- Committee substitute H-1 not adopted
- Accavitti substitute H-2 adopted
- Huizenga 2A adopted
- HB 6088 advanced to 3rd Reading
- Postponed temporarily
